LAST WEEKEND

Sents Split With Athens in Exciting Weekend Series

Coming off of a come from behind shootout win against the Topeka Scarecrows in Thief River Falls, Minnesota, the Sentinels got right back to work preparing to take on the leagues 2nd best team: the Athens Rock Lobsters.

Friday night, the Sentinels shocked the Rock Lobsters by not only competing with Athens, but outplaying them altogether. If not for a disallowed Tomiczek goal early in the period, the Sents would have been tied 1-1 going into the 2nd. Instead, they trailed 1-0. Even with two goals from Corey Cunningham, and an early 3rd period goal from Jonas Leas, the Sents were unable to catch up to Athens who came away with a 5-3 win. In the 2nd, Chris Curr got caught up in traffic and injured his shoulder. He did not return and missed the rest of the weekend.

John Werber would make the trip from Fayetteville to Athens and got the nod to start Saturday's game. Indiana came out with a punch again in the 1st, and outplayed Athens and would leave tied at one on a Zach Ross goal. They continued to outplay Athens in the 2nd and picked up two goals from Kristers Bormanis to give the Sents a 3-2 lead heading into the 3rd. Donovan Powell picked up his first FPHL goal on a tip at the top of the crease to give the Sents a 4-2 lead. Athens cut it down to 4-3, but would not have enough to mount the full comeback.

The game wouldn't end without a major brawl at the horn which saw Romeo Torain receive a 6 game suspension for coming off of the bench for a fight, and a lewd gesture.
